The Winning Team

BOB COOK MEMORIAL GAMES FOR THE DISABLED

The late Lion Bob Cook was a member of Keynsham Club and Charter President of Chippenham Club in 1974. He was District Treasurer from 1980 to 1988. Bob's widow Joy, set up the Bob Cook Trust which invited Clubs in 105w to seek help to fund assistance for disabled young people. Joy died March 2007.

The annual BOB COOK MEMORIALGAMES is held every August at the County Ground Athletics Track in Swindon and is sponsored by Chippenham Lions Club and Highworth and District Lions Club. The event is marshalled by AAA Officials to ensure fairness and accuracy.

The Games have events for all categories of disability, with the objective of having a fun day for all. Groups and Organisations are welcome to enter.
